RDO-AHEP= Residential Development Ordinance Affordable Housing Exemption Procedure

ND refers to a "Neighborhood District" designation that requires 15% of the homes built under this type of project approval are affordable to buyers who earn up to 90% of AMI. Each of these units are deed restricted.

Buyers who earn over 90% up to 120% are not deed restricted. Affordability is demonstrated by comparing the builders sales prices to the restricted sales prices. If the sales price is the same or lower than the restricted sales price established when the Affordable Housing Agreement with the developer is executed, there is no deed restriction recorded on the property.

Program Implementation Status

Program Description (By Housing Element Program Names)	Housing Programs Progress Report - Government Code Section 65583. Describe progress of all programs including local efforts to remove governmental constraints to the maintenance, improvement, and development of housing as identified in the housing element.
Name of Program	Objective	Timeframe in H.E.	Status of Program Implementation
Publicize Residential Sites Inventory	The City shall make the residential sites inventory available to developers by publicizing it on the City website and providing copies of the sites to developers. The City shall update the list of sites annually, or as projects are approved on the sites.	Within 6 months of adoption; update annually, or as needed	The Housing Element, which includes vacant and underutilized residential sites, is on the City Web Site. The Residential Vacant Land Inventory, completed November 2015 is available to the public and has recently been added to the City Web Site.
Residential Development Ordinance	The City shall review and revise, as appropriate, the Residential Development Ordinance to ensure that it does not pose a constraint on the maintenance, improvement and development of housing; and provides capacity to meet the City's RHNA need. Furthermore, the City will encourage the development of housing that is affordable to a variety of income groups through the Residential Development Ordinance by comparing its features with the Neighborhood District Ordinance and making any changes to ensure the two policies are compatible.	Following adoption of the New General Plan (estimated FY 2015/16)	The completion of the General Plan has been suspended until the outcome of an Urban Growth Initiative slated for the November 8th ballot. As of June 6, 2016 the RDO Interim Exemption has been extended for 18 months to provide housing allocations during the time to allow for a vote on the initiative and resumption of the General Plan based on the election outcome. Once the General Plan is completed a review of the RDO Ordinance as it compares to the Neighborhood District Ordinance will be completed.

Variety of Housing in Neighborhood Districts	The City shall review and revise, as appropriate, the Neighborhood District Policy to ensure that it encourages the development of housing that is affordable to a variety of income groups by comparing its features with the Residential Development Ordinance and making any changes to ensure the two policies are compatible and designed to reach the same goals.	In conjunction with the New General Plan preparation (estimated FY 2015/16)	The completion of the General Plan has been suspended until the outcome of an Urban Growth Initiative slated for the November 8th ballot. After the election the General Plan will be resumed with a new schedule established.
Facilitate Infill Development	The City shall coordinate efforts with private and non-profit developers, and other housing related groups to encourage the construction of residential development through a menu of regulatory incentives (e.g., streamlined review and other methods that will effectively encourage infill development). The City shall monitor infill development on a biannual basis to ensure the effectiveness of programs to encourage housing development. If, based on its biannual review, the City finds that additional programs are need to facilitate infill development, the City shall revise programs as appropriate.	Biennially starting in 2016	The City approved Density Bonus' for two affordable unit infill projects totaling over 300 units. In addition, a residential infill project was approved for over 200 townhomes.

Monitor Permit Requirements, Processing Procedures and Land Use Controls	To ensure permit requirements and processing procedures do not constrain residential development, the City shall evaluate current requirements and procedures on a biannual basis. The City shall consult builders and other parties engaged in housing development activities to identify concerns. If permitting requirements are determined to be a constraint to residential development, the City shall modify permitting requirements and/or procedures to address constraints, as feasible.	Starting in 2016 and implement changes as appropriate	A Request for Qualifications will be sent out the summer of 2016 to obtain a consultant to perform a Development Services Audit for improved plan processing.
Zoning to Encourage and Facilitate Single-Room Occupancy Units	The City shall revise the Zoning Code to establish explicit definitions for and regulatory standards addressing single-room occupancy units.	Following adoption of the New General Plan (estimated FY 2015/16)	The completion of the General Plan has been suspended until the outcome of an Urban Growth Initiative slated for the November 8th ballot. After the election the General Plan will be resumed with a new schedule established.
Study Micro-Units	The City shall conduct a study of the appropriateness of "micro-units" in Gilroy and the existing barriers in the Zoning Ordinance to the provision of micro-units. Based on the findings of the study, the City will make a determination of the appropriateness of micro-units in Gilroy and, if determined appropriate, identify methods for eliminating barriers, and establish appropriate development standards.	FY 2017/18	The Micro-Unit study will begin 3rd quarter of FY 2017/18

Develop Affordable Housing Incentives	The City shall review and revise, current incentives and regulatory concessions available to developers for the development of affordable housing throughout the city, especially within the Downtown Gilroy Specific Plan area and Neighborhood District. The City shall also provide technical assistance, as feasible. The City shall continue to monitor development within the City's Downtown area on a biannual basis to ensure the implementation of the Specific Plan's policy on encouraging the development of a mix of retail, office and higher density residential uses. The City shall encourage the development of uses within the area to closely follow the recommended land use assumptions contained in the Specific Plan. If the City finds that the proportion of residential uses to non-residential uses are not being developed as assumed in the Specific Plan, the City shall investigate additional incentives, concessions or assistance and revise programs as appropriate.	Review incentives within 1-year of Housing Element adoption; revise, as appropriate; Monitor effectiveness of incentives and regulatory concession biennially, starting in 2016; Ongoing monitoring of development within Downtown Specific Plan.	The City will continue to evaluate incentives. One change that was implemented was a change to the Residential Development Ordinance Affordable Housing Exemption Procedure (Procedure). Originally it required the cost of affordable rental units be equivalent to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee (CTCAC) 50% income level rental rates for Santa Clara County. To promote further use of tax credit financing, the City changed the Procedure to allow those rents at either 50% and/or 60% income levels. As a result, a large affordable multi-family housing project was submitted and approved.
