Information Portal for Gilroy Pedestrians and Bicyclists

Gilroy bicyclists and pedestrians can become better informed about the city's plan for bicycle and pedestrian issues by viewing the city's Bicycle/Pedestrian Advisory Board (BPAB) webpage on the City of Gilroy website.

BPAB was appointed by the City Council in August 2000, and is mission-directed to advise the city's Parks and Recreation Commission on matters related to bicyclists and pedestrians by the study and identification of issues, problems, activities and concerns of local bicyclists and pedestrians.

Included in the webpage are links to the City's Traffic Master Plan for Bikeways, the Bicycle Pedestrian Transportation Plan, and the Trails Master Plan. External webpage links also include bicycle information from 511.org, Bikes on Santa Clara VTA, and the Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition.

The Gilroy public is invited to check out the City's webpage for the Bicycle Pedestrian Advisory Board at:
