DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Pioneer
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical appearance of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

A one story structure of rectangular form. It is also referred to as a "hall and parlor" style, because of its very functional design containing three rooms. Additions, such as a shed to the rear or side, were necessary to accomodate modern kitchens and bathrooms. The entrance is in the center between two rectangular windows of double hung wood sash. The frame of both door and windows is simple Greek revival. The structure is sheathed in horizontal board with grooved and fitted joints.

SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)

The site's significance is due to its architectural style and the fact that it is in such good repair. This pioneer has Queen Anne touches in the fish scale shingle decoration under the gable. The concrete steps and pipe railing are unfortunate additions.

20. Main theme of the historic resource: (If more than one is checked, number in order of importance.)
