DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Spanish Colonial Revival
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical appearance of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

The structure consists of a long, low, single-story reinforced concrete building constructed on a rectangular plan and designed in a very minimalist Spanish colonial revival/commercial style. As with its neighbor at 7390 Monterey Street, the building helps provide a Spanish colonial revival touch to central Gilroy. It is defined by large square apertures (consisting of plate glass windows and doors) which are separated by squared pillars. The area above the store front entries is unadorned plaster with small incised ornamental garlands. A line of red tiles defines the false front roof.
