- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical appearance of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

Yet another variant of the urban design form which is repeated over and over again in downtown Gilroy, a simple rectangular form constructed of brick and sheathed in plaster or stucco with no set back from the sidewalk characterizes this site. As with its immediate neighbors, the building is best viewed in the context of the whole. The size and scale of the supporting building along Monterey help to both unify the central business district and to frame the large multi-storied buildings which give the area a mission/spanish colonial revival/ 1920's commercial/neo-classical-classical revival mix style of architecture the town is characterized by a fairly compact old downtown brick commercial street flanked by pleasant, well-landscaped single family detached houses designed most often on a cottage scale. A cinder block rear addition has been.

SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)

As with its immediate neighbors, the building is best viewed in the context of the whole. The size and scale of the supporting buildings along Monterey help to both unify the central business district and to frame the large multi-storied buildings which give the area a mission/Spanish colonial revival/ 1920's commercial/ neo-classical revival mix style of architecture. The town is characterized by a fairly compact old downtown brick commercial street.

Thomas Hines Grocery occupied this structure in 1926. Like most structures on Monterey, within three years the use changed and this became the Gilroy Coffee Shoppe.
